

An Update for Our Members

A note from JMAFCU

As we all continue to monitor the impact of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19), the JMAFCU team is committed to delivering seamless service to our members while keeping members and staff safe. We are closely following the latest guidance from the Center for Disease Control (CDC) and leading government and health authorities to ensure we are taking the right actions to protect our members, staff and community. We are prepared to, if needed, work remotely in case of quarantine or office closures.

For your protection, we encourage you to use our electronic suite of services:

- SAFE Audio
- SAFE IB (www.jmafcu.org)
- SAFE Mobile
 - Mobile Deposit feature is available.

We realize with this unexpected event that your financial needs may change. We are here to assist with your financial needs and have several options to assist you. As always, we are looking out for your best interest. Please call or email us if you need assistance at (800) 581-2256 or generalinfo@jmafcu.org.

Jim Ryan
President